Let's face it—everyone has either been on a date or will be soon. Yes, even you married couples. Isn't it about time that the church starts a conversation on this topic? After all, the Bible is incredibly practical and has so much to help us in our relationships. How do you recognize Mr. Right? How do you see past the first impression to discover who's really behind that smile? Or how do you find a mate when you can't even find a date? And if you're married your dating reality may seem as illusive. How do you keep the romance alive? And how do you help your kids avoid some of the same mistakes you made in your dating days?

Join us at Granger Community Church for some straight talk about sex, dating and romance – whether you're married, single, single again or a student. For five weeks, we'll look at the advice of Hollywood and compare it to the teachings of the Bible.
